

Hurricane Ida: Impacts of the Tail End

In August 2021 Hurricane Ida landed in Louisiana as a category 4 hurricane bringing catastrophic damage. It was the costliest storm of 2021, taking lives and damaging homes, businesses, and infrastructure. When the hurricane stalled and turned into an extratropical storm and moved North, it brought unprecedented rain and flooding.

Timeline

- August 27, 2021 Hurricane Ida forms in the Gulf of Mexico
- August 29, 2021 Makes landfall as a category 4 storm
- August 30, 2021 Tropical Storm
- August 31, 2021 Tropical Depression
- September 1, 2021 Extratropical Storm
Storm meets warm air and stalls releasing unprecedent rainfall

Extratropical Storm Impacts: Mid-Atlantic & Northeast

$15 Billion in damages

57 Deaths

7-9 in. Maximum rainfall

232,000 People lost power